

Linda Cooney, Vice-President of the OVPDC

Linda Cooney RVT, BASVT, has been practicing in the veterinary technical field since graduating from St. Lawrence College, as a Registered Veterinary Technologist. After graduation, Linda completed an eight-week pet grooming course at a "Touch of Class" grooming academy, in Calgary, Alberta. She then worked as head technologist in a private practice for 18 years. Since 2008, she has taught "Grooming Your Dog" and "First Aid for Pets", at Algonquin College, Pembroke Campus, allowing more time to be home and raise their two children. Linda has also recently completed a Bachelor of Applied Science in Veterinary Technology, from St. Petersburg College in Florida, graduating the 4th of May, 2013, in Tampa Bay, Florida. She is active with her dogs in conformation, obedience, rally, and agility. Linda is a long time member of the CKC, OVPDC, GSPCC and the Champlain Dog Club.

